St Kevin's Goal is $21,198 Nuestra Meta

Gracias a todos los que donaron en la Segunda colecta la semana pasada y a los que han entregado su compromiso para este año.

Con los fondos recaudados hemos solo alcanzado el 5.7 % de nuestra meta anual. Les pedimos consideren en oración durante este tiempo de cuarenta cuanto su familia puede contribuir. Si fuéramos solo 200 personas en todas las misas nos tocaría a cada uno contribuir $106 lo que es menos de $11 al mes.

Thank you to everyone who donated at the Second Collection last week and to those who have made their pledge for this year. With the funds raised we have only reached 5.7% of our annual goal. We ask you to prayerfully consider during this season of Lent how much your family can contribute. If we were only 200 people at all the masses, we would each have to contribute $106, which is less than $11 a month.

REFLEXION DEL EVANGELIO DE HOY

Las lecturas del Domingo de Ramos Año B nos recuerdan que los caminos de Dios no son los nuestros, y que a veces debemos estar dispuestos a dejar de lado nuestras propias expectativas y confiar en el plan de Dios. La muerte de Jesús en la cruz no fue el final, sino el comienzo de una nueva esperanza y una nueva vida. Fue a través de su sacrificio que somos salvos, y es a través de nuestra propia voluntad de renunciar a nuestros propios deseos y seguirlo que podemos experimentar la verdadera libertad y salvación.

Reflexionemos sobre estos pasajes del Domingo de Ramos Año B con humildad y apertura, reconociendo nuestras propias limitaciones y debilidades, y confiando en la infinita sabiduría y amor de Dios. Que estemos dispuestos a dejar de lado nuestras propias expectativas y deseos y seguir a Jesús con fe y valentía, incluso cuando el camino por delante parezca incierto o difícil.

TODAY'S GOSPEL REFLEXION

The readings for Palm Sunday Year B remind us that God's ways are not our ways, and that sometimes we must be willing to let go of our own expectations and trust in God's plan. Jesus' death on the cross was not the end, but rather the beginning of a new hope and a new life. It was through his sacrifice that we are saved, and it is through our own willingness to surrender our own desires and follow him that we can experience true freedom and salvation.

Let us reflect on these passages for Palm Sunday Year B with humility and openness, recognizing our own limitations and weaknesses, and trusting in the infinite wisdom and love of God. May we be willing to let go of our own expectations and desires, and follow Jesus with faith and courage, even when the road ahead seems uncertain or difficult.

Divina Misericordia Abril 7, 2024

En el Año Jubilar 2000, el Papa Juan Pablo II proclamó que a partir de ese año el Segundo Domingo de Pascua se celebraría como Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Así lo proclamó en la Misa de Canonización de Santa Faustina Kawalska, quien trabajó durante toda su vida para concienciar a todos del amor misericordioso de Dios. Santa Faustina (1905–1938) nació y creció en Polonia. Siguiendo una vocación a la vida religiosa, fue aceptada por la Congregación de las Hermanas de Nuestra Señora de la Merced. Como miembro de la Congregación, trabajó como cocinera, jardinera y portera. En su vida espiritual, su contemplación de la Misericordia de Dios la llevó a desarrollar una confianza infantil en Dios y un profundo amor por el prójimo.

Divine Mercy Abril 7, 2024

In the Jubilee Year 2000, Pope John Paul II proclaimed that from that year forward the Second Sunday of Easter would be celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This was proclaimed at the Canonization Mass of St. Faustina Kawalska, who worked throughout her life to make all aware of the merciful love of God. St. Faustina (1905–1938) was born and raised in Poland. Following a vocation to religious life, she was accepted by the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy. As a member of the Congregation, she worked as a cook, gardener, and porter. In her spiritual life, her contemplation on the Mercy of God led her to develop a childlike trust in God and deep love for her neighbor.
